

5 top tips

for working with parents in your sport

1 Set up ways to positively communicate with parents from the start

4 Encourage parents to stay at practice and support their child

2 Get to know parents, listen to any concerns and try to act on them

5 Make time to regularly update parents about their child's development

3 Include parents in club decisions, like choosing a new uniform or practice times

For further guidance on working with parents, visit thecpsu.org.uk/parents